Chainstack brand guidelines

The horizontal logo is our primary logo.

- The blue logo should be used on light backgrounds.
- The white logo should be used on dark backgrounds.

The logomark can be used for any instance that requires a square graphic (e.g., profile pages, social media profile pages, etc.)

Chainstack vertical logo

The Chainstack vertical logo can be used only for instances that require vertical graphics due to size restrictions (e.g., websites, profile pages, etc.) and where “Chainstack” is not clearly stated nearby.

If there are mentions of Chainstack nearby, please use the Chainstack logomark.

- The blue logo should be used on light backgrounds.
- The white logo should be used on dark backgrounds.

Powered by Chainstack

The 'Powered by Chainstack' logo can be used for projects building on Chainstack.

- The blue logo should be used on light backgrounds.
- The white logo should be used on dark backgrounds.

Chainstack Labs

The 'Chainstack Labs' logo can be used only for official multi-chain tools built by Chainstack to support the foundational layer for Web3, DeFi and the digital economy.

- The blue logo should be used on light backgrounds.
- The white logo should be used on dark backgrounds.
